

violence against women, to better inform policy and practice. We are also undertaking a legislative review, research, education and awareness programs as part of our commitment to ending Female Genital Mutilation.

Eliminating violence through aid

Australia's work to eradicate violence against women and girls, and to achieve gender equality

