

Madam President:

The Delegation of the Republic of Equatorial Guinea as the others before me, salutes the

It has initiated awareness raising activities in schools aimed at children on violence with editing photos with expressions of violence: "Violence is insulting" "hitting is violence" among others

It is carrying out regular sensitization workshop for heads of base communities, members of the three branches of government (legislative, executive and judicial), Security members focus on gender and violence against women.

Parliamentary Councils know that despite everything a lot still needs to be done therefore reaffirms its commitment to eliminate all forms of violence against women and girls and endorses the resolutions adopted by this Assembly.

Thank you very much.
