must stop. The ruling international monetary system is in bankruptcy and must be substituted and the debts must be cancelled.

If we do not take measures and do not achieve a sustainable, just and equitable development which eradicates poverty, we will never have full gender equality

The responsible for the dismal international panorama, that is to say, the rich countries, must understand the effects of today's crisis go beyond the underdeveloped South and demand immediate solutions and collaboration formulas. Today, the realization of the right to development of our peoples is even indispensable for the very survival of the countries of the North.

We, third world countries, cannot resign ourselves before the devastating effects of the unsustainable international economic order. Together we must help each other by virtue of the international solidarity and fight for the future of our peoples, including women and girls.
