Mr Chairman, The international community has made significant and increasing efforts over the last decade Women entity, to contribute to gender equality and the empowerment of women, and the approintment of the Special Representative of the Secretary General for Sexual Violence in Conflict specifically highlight advances made in this regard. Further, given the 10th applyances of Sacrific Council Bookston 1225 on Warner Books and Council Boo

Mr. Chairman,

We would like to take this opportunity to recognize and honour the resilience and capacities of women and reaffirm the importance of ensuring women's active participation in their own solutions including self-protection mechanisms and livelihood apportunities.

The ICRC urges UN Member States, as State Parties to the Claricus Conventions and other Hill treaties, to include in their national legislation provisions to the Claricus Conventions and other respect of women and

Typiks and the control of the manufacture of the control of the co