Ladies and gentlemen

It is my pleasure to welcome you to the launching of this exhibit: Empower Women: 30 years of United Nations efforts to promote gender equality and empowerment of women. The exhibit is organized in the context of the on-going ten-year review of implementation of the Beijing Declaration and Platform for Action in the Commission on the Status of Women. The exhibit very graphically illustrates a key message in the statement by the Secretary-General at the opening of the Commission: "...there is no tool for development more effective than the empowerment of women."

The exhibit will draw participants attending the Commission on the Status of Women over the coming week as well as other visitors to the United Nations Building during the next two months.

We are honoured by the presence of Mrs. Nane Annan, a lawyer by training, an accomplished artist, and wife of the United Nations Secretary-General. The achievement of gender equality and empowerment of women is a cause which Mrs. Annan has unceasingly promoted and supported over the past decade. Mrs. Annan has been particularly dedicated to the empowerment of young girls.

Thank you Mrs Annan, and thank you Under-Secretary-General Mr Ocampo. We now invite you to view the exhibit and we ask you to take a moment and sign the guest book before you leave .

2:00 - 2:15 pm Ribbon-cutting, photo opportunity, walk through and viewing of the exhibit with Mrs. Annan and Mr Ocampo. Carolyn Hannan, Sylvie Illana Cohen, Yasna Uberoi and Margot Perlman to guide the guests through the exhibition.
